

APARNA VISWANATHAN

FOUNDING PARTNER

APARNA VISWANATHAN, BAR AT LAW, received her Bachelor of Arts (A.B.) degree from Harvard University and her Juris Doctor (J.D.) from the University of Michigan Law School. She is called to the Bar in England (of Lincoln's Inn) as well as in New York, Washington D.C., California and India. She is fluent in French, Spanish and Italian and advises clients in these languages.

After practicing law for five years with large firms in New York City, Los Angeles, in 1995, Ms. Viswanathan founded Viswanathan & Co, Advocates, a firm which now has offices in New Delhi and Bangalore. Since then, she has advised over 100 major multinational companies doing business in India and also argues cases before several High Courts in India, the Supreme Court of India.

Ms. Viswanathan is a widely published lawyer. In addition to over 80 by-lines in the national Indian press including The Times of India, The Economic Times, The Business Standard, The Financial Express and The Hindu, she has published over 70 articles on topics of both Indian and English company law, IPR, IT law, competition law, employment law and other issues published in internationally reputed law journals published by BNA and Sweet & Maxwell. She is also the author of several books such as Outsourcing to India: Cross-Border Legal Issues (Lexis Nexis Butterworths, 2008), Cyber Law: Indian and International Perspectives (Lexis Nexis Butterworths, 2012) as well as several book chapters.

Ms. Viswanathan has been lecturing on U.S., Indian and English law for over two decades. She has lectured under the auspices of the Government of India, the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce, the Confederation of Indian Industries, the PHD Chamber of Commerce, the Computer Society of India. ITECH Law, LAWASIA, the British Institute for International and Comparative Law as well as the International Bar Association.